COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The Copyright Law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) specifies certain conditions under which libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One condition is that the reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user requests, or later uses, a reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order which, in its judgment, would involve violation of copyright law.

I understand that the material I request may be subject to copyright restrictions (Title 17, U.S. Code). I hereby authorize the Scientific Library Document Delivery Service to process all requests submitted by myself.
