QUOTE OF THE MONTH

Anyone who has a library and a garden wants for nothing.

- Cicero

LIBRARY ORIENTATIONS

Regular Library Orientations are held each month, beginning at 2:30 p.m. January's Orientation will be held on Wednesday, January 8. February's Orientation will be held on Wednesday, February 12. Orientations are held in the Library's Microcomputer Lab. No prior registration is required.

We encourage all new employees to attend, to learn more about the Library's services, and to see demonstrations of the Library's Home Page and online catalog. If you are unable to attend any of these sessions, please call x5840 to schedule an alternate session.

ONLINE JOURNALS UPDATE: IDEAL NOW SCIENCEDIRECT

With the acquisition of Harcourt by Elsevier Science, online journals formerly published with the IDEAL/Academic Press imprint have recently been converted to Elsevier's ScienceDirect service in accordance with instructions from the publishers. As of December 31, 2002, IDEAL links will not connect properly to full-text. Therefore, you will find on the Library's Online Journals list that the links to journals formerly via IDEAL are now via ScienceDirect. If you have any online journals individually bookmarked on your computer, it is important that you update your list. Please let us know if you have any questions about or problems accessing these or any online titles.

SITES FROM THE WEB

The following selected sites have come to our attention via various sources; their inclusion on our Web site does not indicate endorsement by Library staff. Links to these sites can be found in the Web Resources section of our web site under the category noted in each listing. Visit the Library's Home Page at <http://www-library.ncifcrf.gov>.

Current Status of FY03 R&D Appropriations Bills

<http://www.aaas.org/spp/rd/approp03.htm>

AAAS offers this frequently updated chart with links to keep track of the status of the federal R&D budget for FY03; analysis is also provided. [Government; Scientific/Research]

Science.gov Web Site

<http://www.science.gov>

A new site from an alliance of 14 scientific and technical information organizations from 10 major science agencies, Science.gov aims to provide a one-stop gateway to reliable information about science and technology from across Federal government organizations. Resources include technical reports, journal citations, databases, Federal web sites, and fact sheets. The information is free and no registration is required. Support for the gateway came from "CENDI," an interagency committee of senior managers of Federal science and technology information programs. [Government; Scientific/Research]

State Profiles of the Effect of Federal R&D Funding

<http://www.aaas.org/spp/rd/states.htm>

The AAAS R&D Budget and Policy Program offers state profiles on the impact of federal R&D on states. Includes summary tables and charts showing the latest National Science Foundation (NSF) data on federal R&D by state for fiscal year (FY) 1999, followed by 51 state profiles. The National Science Foundation's Division of Science Resources Statistics collects data on the geographical distribution of R&D by state or region. [Government; Scientific/Research]

Stephen Jay Gould Archive

<http://www.stephenjaygould.org/>

A paleontologist and educator at Harvard University and the author of over 20 books, Steven Jay Gould was known as the leading spokesman for the science of evolutionary biology, making science popular and understandable. This site provides an introduction to his career as well as a record of how he combined rigorous scholarship with accessibility. (Scientific/Research)

PDA CLASSES

In September 2002 the Scientific Library posted an announcement on the NCI-Frederick electronic listserv asking if anyone would be interested in attending a formal class to learn about Portable Digital Assistants (PDAs). Within 3 days we received more than 40 interested replies!

We are happy to announce that we will be offering 2 introductory PDA training sessions in February 2003. A trainer from our regional medical library will be teaching 4-hour hands-on classes in the Library's Microcomputer Lab. Attendance is limited, so we will be offering all available seats on a first-come, first-served basis to those 40+ people who responded to our original announcement.

We are hopeful that these 2 classes will be the beginning of a new training opportunity from the Library. Please watch for future announcements about PDA programs.

NCBI PERSONAL CONSULTATIONS

A staff member from the National Center for Biotechnology Information (NCBI) will visit the NCI-Frederick campus in January to offer personal consultations to interested personnel. A one-hour personal consultation provides each student with an opportunity for a one-on-one discussion about a specific NCBI-related topic of his or her choice. All consultations are held in the Scientific Library's Microcomputer Lab, to permit hands-on practice and access to the NCBI databases, such as GenBank and BLAST, via the World Wide Web.

The January visit is scheduled for Friday, January 31. One-hour sessions begin at 9:00 a.m., with the final session beginning at 4:00 p.m. You must register to attend an NCBI personal consultation. If you are interested, please contact the Instructional Resources Librarian at x5840, or email meckley@mail.ncifcrf.gov

For more information about the National Center for Biotechnology Information, please see the web site at URL <http://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/>

ONLINE JOURNALS STATUS

Due to 2003 subscription renewal problems at NIH, as well as the conversion of many titles from IDEAL to ScienceDirect, some titles may be temporarily unavailable. Please continue to report access problems to us at x1682 or e-mail us at library@mail.ncifcrf.gov.

New NCI-Frederick Online Journals Titles include: Biotechnology Progress; Molecular & Cellular Proteomics. See the Online Journals News page at <http://www-library.ncifcrf.gov> for other additions to the list.

RETRACTIONS OF PUBLICATIONS

The staff of the Scientific Library provides this service to alert our readers to any journal articles that are being retracted by the authors. Often, research that is undertaken to support the ideas in journal articles is questioned by other scientists. If the original authors then publish a formal retraction of all or parts of the original article, MEDLINE indexes that new article as "RETRACTION OF PUBLICATION" in the "publications type" field.

When a new retraction appears in MEDLINE, and subsequently in our newsletter, staff members type alerts that are permanently attached to the original articles. In this way, if a scientist is reading the original article, he/she will immediately be aware of the published retraction, and will be able to easily locate it in the journal collection.
