

Take Your Child to Work Day 2023

Tuesday, June 27th
2023

Mark your calendars for this June 27, 2023

The Education Outreach Program (EOP) within the Office of Scientific Operations, invites you to the annual Take Your Child to Work Day (TYCTWD) event at the National Cancer Institute, Frederick. This event introduces kids grades 1st-8th, to their parent's workplace and is a great opportunity for NCI employees to combine family time with the introduction to careers in science.

Spark Inquiry. Excitement. & Joy: Become a Program Host

Programs are the core component of Take Your Child to Work Day and give participants a glimpse into the daily activities of the staff at the NCI at Frederick Campus. Select your availability, age range your program will target & capacity for the size of your audience!

Registration for Program Hosts
